Shoreline at Mountain View 4th of July Victorian Fashion Promenade!

Strolling ... Fashion ... Fun!

Sunday, July 4, 2010

1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Shoreline at Mountain View welcomes members of local costume guilds and Victorian appreciation groups to participate in the first-ever 4th of July Victorian Promenade. This event is open to individuals and community groups with knowledge of attire from the Victorian era, 1837 to 1901, as well as the Edwardian era. This is sure to be a great event and hopefully this will turn into a new annual tradition at Shoreline at Mountain View.

To participate, please complete and submit the attached form by Friday, June 18, 2010 indicating your interest and availability to participate. This will allow us to keep you informed of any special instructions or accommodations on July 4th, as well as to contact you in the future and keep you informed of Rengstorff House and Shoreline at Mountain View events.

Then, simply put on your vintage or recreated clothing and join the thousands of other visitors to Shoreline at Mountain View on the afternoon of the 4th of July holiday. Parking will be limited and you may need to walk to the Rengstorff House from parking lots beyond those at the Rengstorff House. Sorry, we are unable to make special parking provisions for those who participate. The local media will be informed of the event which is designed to increase awareness of Rengstorff

House, the oldest home in Mountain View, and to promote Rengstorff House during a cultural arts exhibition entitled Victorian Fashion: Head to Toe. You are welcome to bring a picnic blanket to enjoy the afternoon at Rengstorff House lawn or nearby Sailing Lake lawn areas. Picnic benches are not provided throughout Shoreline at Mountain View, picnics may be on blankets. Thank you for your interest in participating, and for interacting with members of the public by strolling in costume along the foot trail close to the Rengstorff House called North Shore area along the Bay!

Yes, I plan to participate in costume in the Victorian Fashion Promenade at Shoreline at Mountain View on July 4, 2010. I agree to follow all rules and regulations at Shoreline, and to be aware of all safety concerns when walking the trails in my costume. I understand that this is an event for the general public, with little or no supervision. I am aware of Rengstorff House, the oldest home in Mountain View, and am willing to address questions from the public about the house and its public tours. I agree to wear only attire that is modest and appropriate to the Victorian and Edwardian periods. I authorize the City of Mountain View and local media outlets may use photographs of me in my costume for future event promotions or City purposes.

I (the undersigned) hereby agree to save and hold harmless the City of Mountain View, its officers, agents and employees, from any and all responsibility and liability for any personal injuries to me, or for any property damage, by reason of any accident or injury that I may suffer or have while using equipment or while participating and/or engaging in my volunteer activity with the City of Mountain View, or in any way arising in connection with said activity, program, project; and I further waive any cause of action whatsoever against said City, its officers, agents, and employees arising out of, or in connection with, said activity in favor of myself, my heirs or assigns. I further agree to assume responsibility for any property damage or injury to any person caused by me while using equipment so furnished or while participating in said project, activity, program.
